PENN-BERNVILLE HIGH SCHOOL-BERNVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA

FOREWORD

Life is a fascinating journey. The Sea of Life is touched by innumerable ports--some will call us for service; others offer adventure, happiness, or perhaps, disappointment. To one unprepared this sea is treacherous, to a novice always awesome. But, to the Class of 1965, which shall soon venture forth from Penn-Berville School, may it be a challenge for which we are wellprepared! May the knowledge gained, the skills developed, and the character molded within the security of our harbor have given us the courage to venture forth boldly: OUT OF THE HARBOR, OUT ON THE DEEP!

Let us now recall some of the landmarks along the initial step of our voyage as we unfold tomorrow's memories, events of the past school year.

Mrs. Margaret S. Kreitler

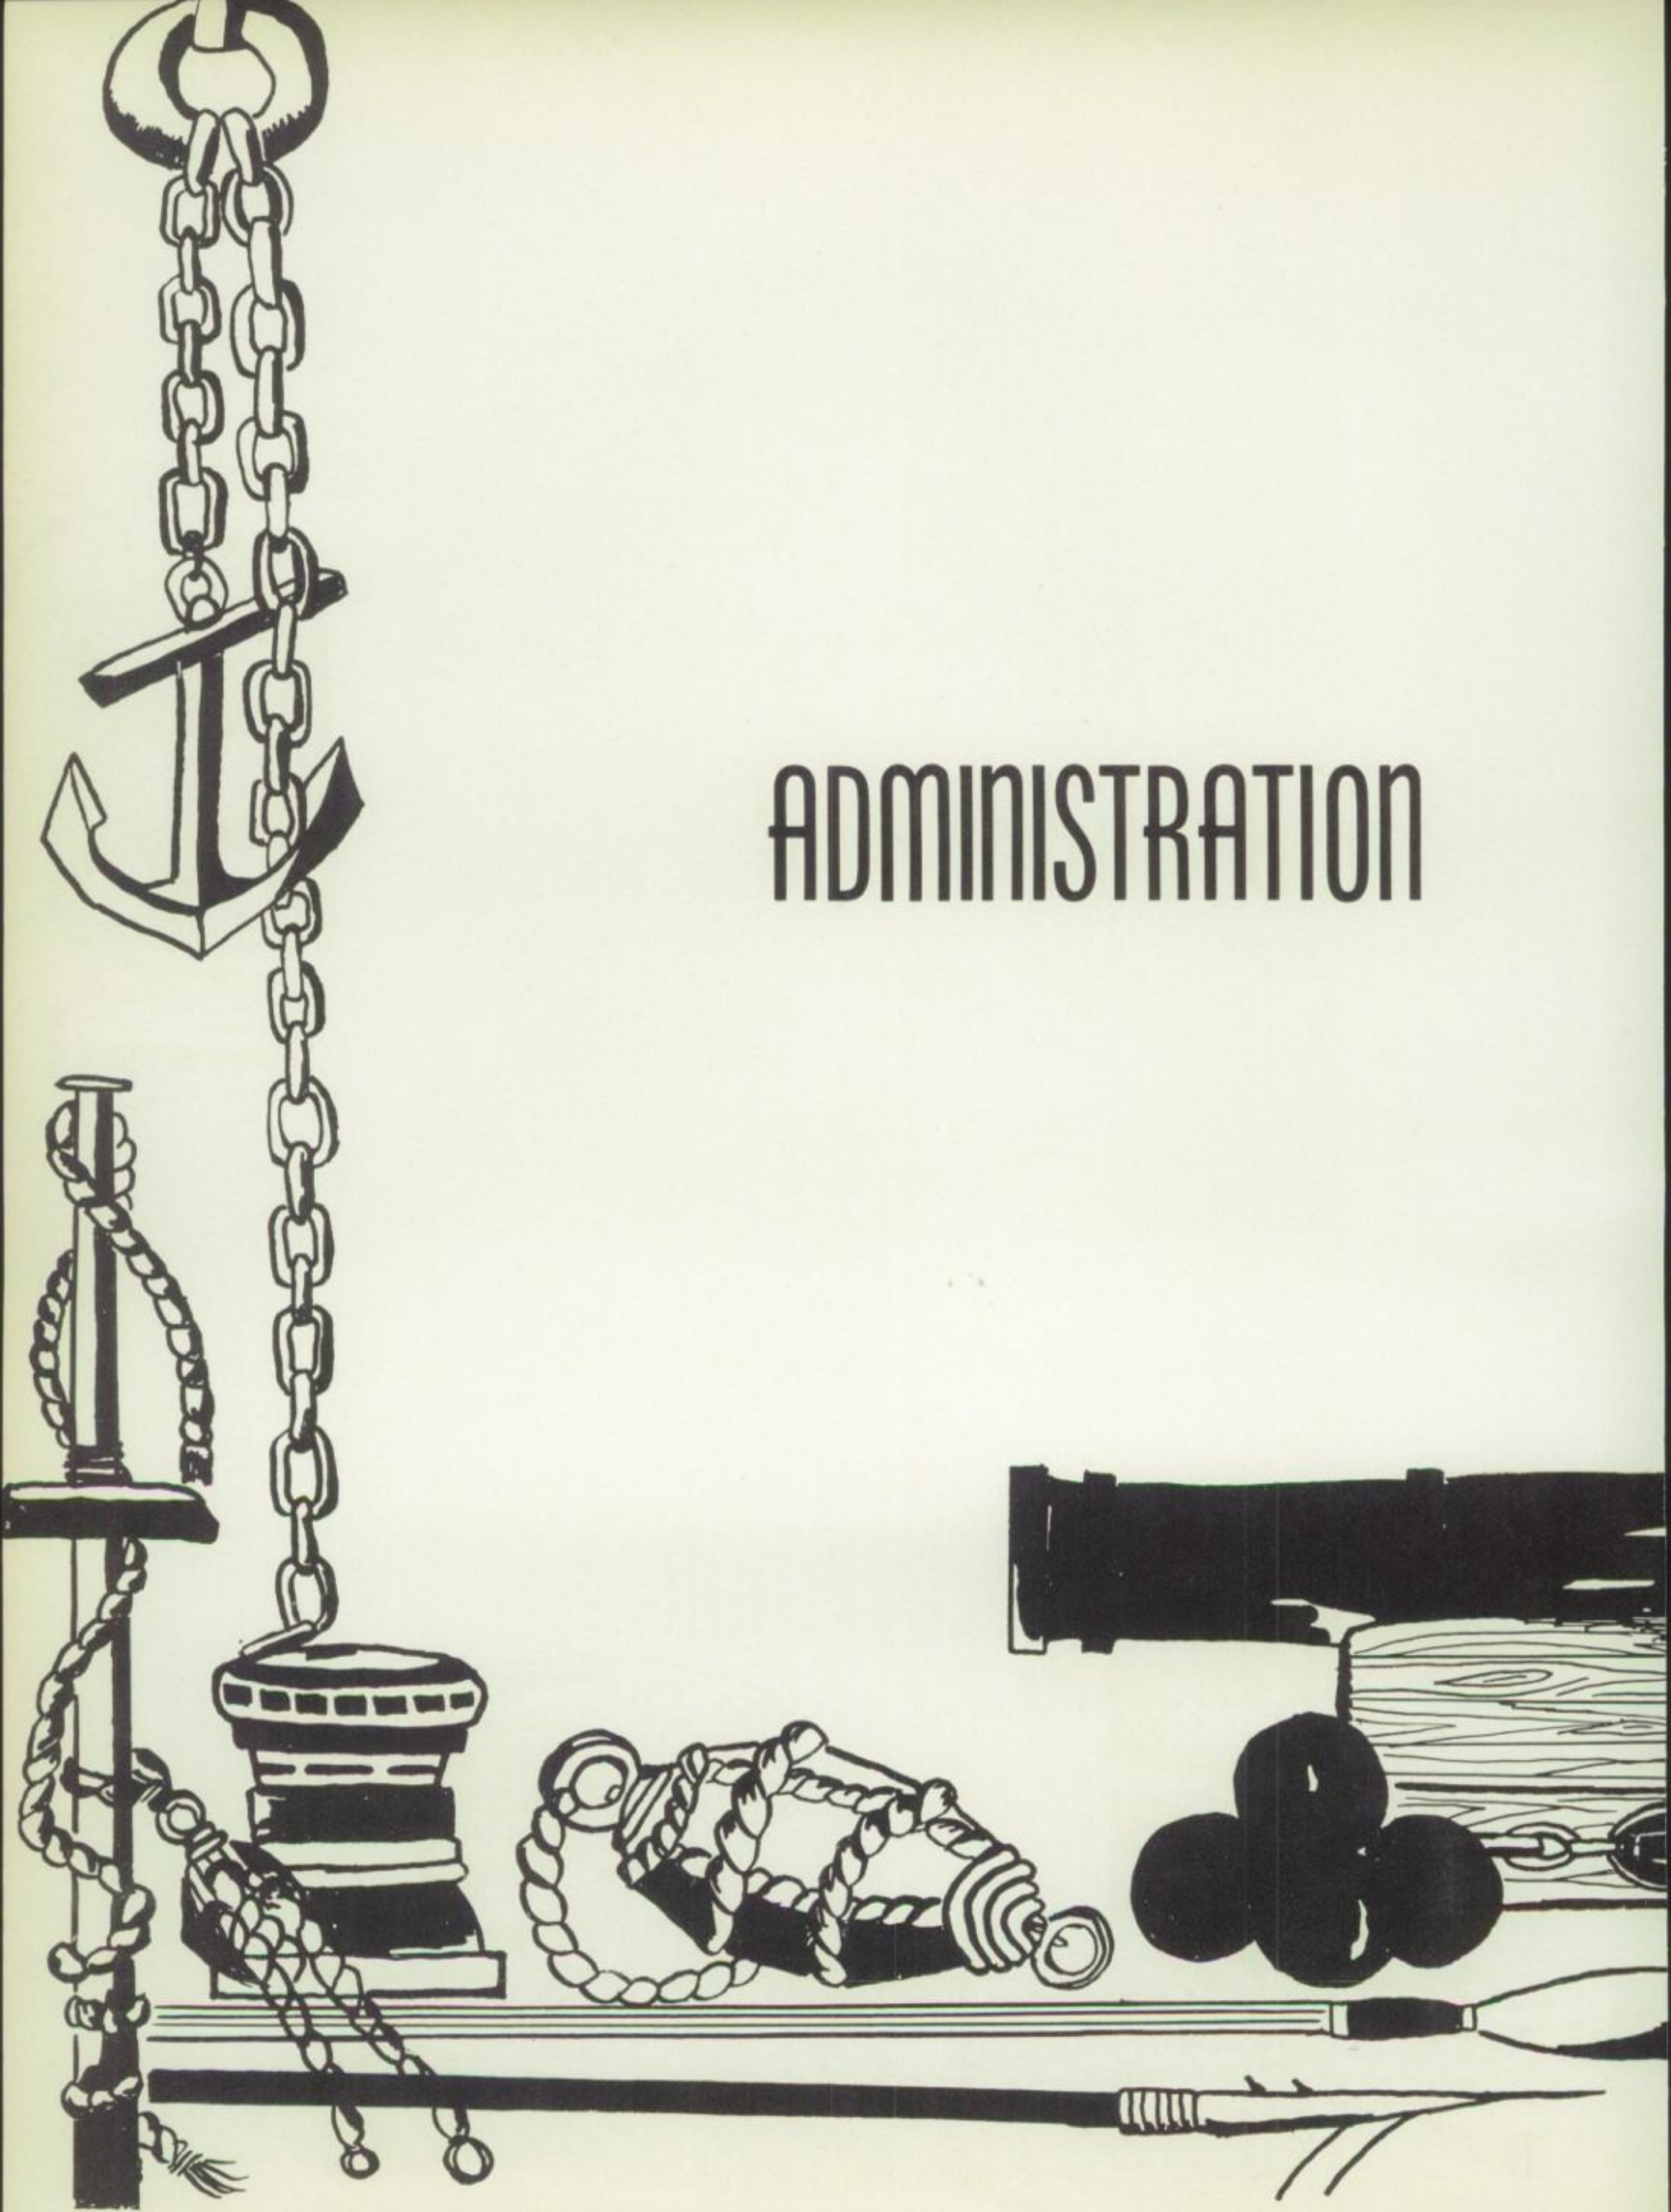

DEDICATION

To you, Mrs. Margaret S. Kreitler, we, the Class of 1965, sincerely dedicate the PENNANT.

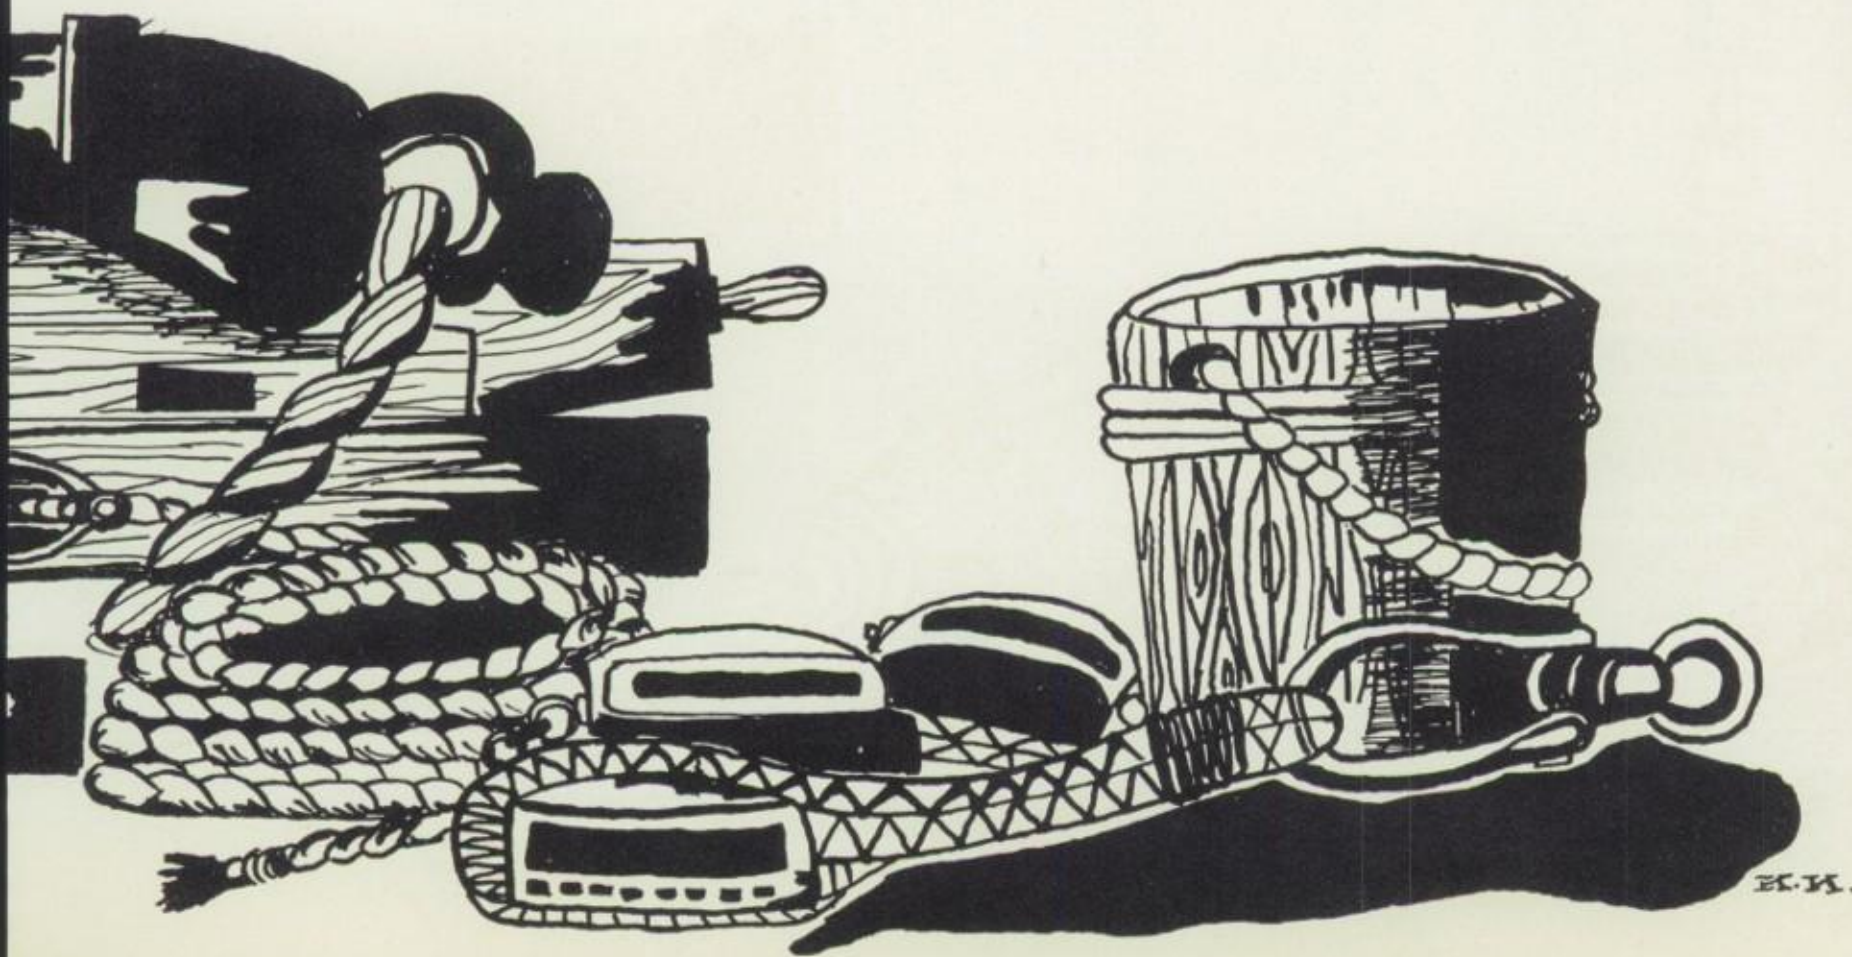

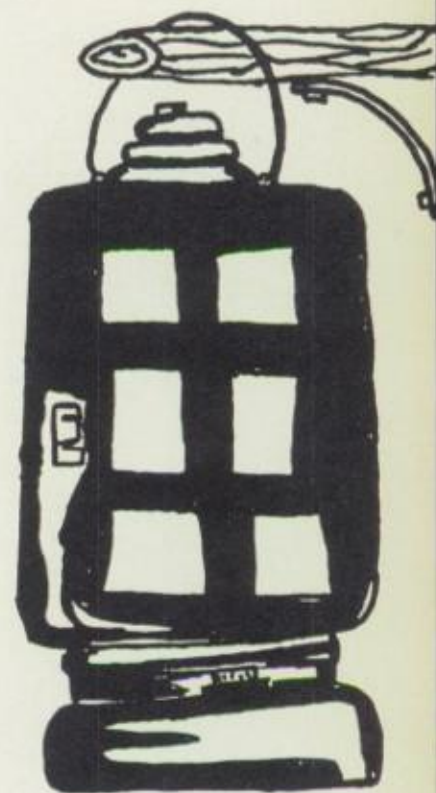

Since you have been at Penn-Bernville High School, you have always been ready to lend a helping hand and have never complained about all the work that had to be done. You were our homeroom teacher in sixth grade and have been one of our art supervisors not only in high school but in elementary grades as well.

The many fond memories will never be forgotten. Therefore, we take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation by dedicating this volume of the PENNANT to you.

WE HAVE

"How about dividing all of this among ourselves?" said Paul at one of the basketball games.

"Mary had a little lamb! Yeah! Yeah!" shout the Imaginations.

Oh! Hi Girls!

Where does this section of the PENNANT belong?

Denice, get that pot off my fingers so I can go to our Prom!

LINGERED

"Rock-a-bye b-a-b-y . . ." sings the FFA during Initiation Ceremony.

"Nuts! I have to start over again!" June Bixler exclaims for the 14th. time.

"Howdy, Partner!" exclaims a participant in the Tall Tales gathering in the spring of 1964.

"Hey you dope, get up!" says Susie Evans during a skit in the math assembly.

"Let's all join in a chorus of 'America the Beautiful'," says Donald Keener, Student Council president.

BY MANY

Bonnie Billet and Ken Gehris had a very interesting discussion concerning the Presidential election in Assembly.

AS OUR SHIP APPROACHES

"My! What do we have here?" asks Eva during a drama skit.

"When . . da . . the pie . . . da . . was open . . ." stammers Kurt for a drama improvisation.

Assembly

"May I please have your attention?" asked Karl Kline, president of Student Council.

"And what's you doin', honeychild?" drawls Bill Hoffert to Jeff Hain.

"Not too tight, honey!" orders Larry Lebo to Steve Roth in a junior skit.

THE EVER-ESCAPING HORIZON.

"Do you give out educations?" asks Louise Wetzel during a seventh grade skit.

"Now say ch-e-e-se," commands Susan Shaeffer during an assembly.

Programs

"A - one, a - two . . ." A typical band practice led by Mr. Berger.

"I'll take this one," says Steve Pugliese in an assembly.
